Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims in this application have been allowed because the prior art does not disclose a method for processing hatchlings, wherein the method includes the steps of loading a hatchling into one of a plurality of carriers, each carrier comprising an identification tag associated therewith; determining a processing sequence—including selecting at least two processing stations at which each hatchling will undergo processing; and processing each hatchling in the at least two selected processing stations, with the processing sequences for at least two loaded hatchling carriers being different. The prior art also does not disclose a hatchling processing system comprising a plurality of processing stations; an automated conveying system connecting the plurality of processing stations; a plurality of hatchling carriers adapted to travel along the automated conveying system between the processing stations; an identification tag associated with each hatchling carrier; and a control system operatively connected to the conveying system and processing stations and routing the hatchling carriers along the conveying system and activating the processing stations as needed.

Art Unit: 3643

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
